Approval of Minutes
(IAC-M-154, 25 May 1954)

1. Action: Approved.

Soviet Capabilities and Main Lines of Policy Through
Mid-1959
(NIE 11-5-54)

2. Action: Approved as amended, subject to:

- (a) The inclusion of a footnote, to be supplied by Air Force;
- (b) An agreed clarification with regard to the atomic energy paragraph, by the JAEIC;
- (c) An agreed clarification of the paragraph regarding guided missiles, by the SEC.

3. Discussion: Mr. Armstrong and Admiral Layton urged that, when it is imperative for an ONE draft estimate to go to the Planning Board for reasons of urgency, some arrangement be devised whereby the other intelligence agencies are so informed and have available a copy of the draft. The Chairman ~~undertook to see what arrangements could be made in this regard~~ stated that this would be done in the future.

Security of Laos
and Cambodia
(NIE-63-2-54)

4. Action: Approved as amended.

Watch Committee
Report

6. The Chairman said that he had intended, but had not yet had an opportunity, to circulate the Watch Committee Report to the NSC (which has on various occasions been very much interested in the Watch process) in the hope that he could discuss later with them the recommendations with regard to strengthening the Watch Committee. He said that the support of the NSC would be very helpful to the improvement of the Watch Committee.
